Dr. Janza Williams;

Fear Sir — it gives me greatpleaeure to know that you are again propuring your medicine for the cure of Pryspopels, for harny of my sequalitances have repeatedly solded me where it entitled be procured, knowing that I had been cured by it. As I think that a juddic acknowledgement of the great beautit I have received from the use of your medicine, is not only due to you, but may be useful to others, I now make it. For several years I suffered from Dyspepala, a birch to created years I suffered from Dyspepala, a birch to created against an account that my health as I constitution work rappilly sinking under it. I was compelled to restruct mywelf to the most simple food, and even that I could not dignet; I felt a fous of strength, distinctination to exercises, and (as you have it in your advectionment) a general fiscing of deprension and indeput thathe searment. In the year 1888, bearing from others high recommendation of your Anti-Dyspepis Elizir, I produced and used it with the most happy effect; under its influence languar and wearings gradually passed away, and my appetite revived, which i could gradify with impunity. Ten years have now elapsed, and my conflicted to the or rative powers of your a linke has of course in creased, for it completely cured me, when I falled to think relief from any others moure.
